Hurricane Matthew Status of Operations

6:00 AM

October 20, 2016

Statewide Summary – The removal of downed trees and debris from roads is finishing up and crews are transitioning to repair activities. There are 7 maintenance crews from the upstate and midlands assisting Districts 5 and 6 with road clearing and repair activities. Twelve sign crews from the upstate and midlands have been dispatched to the hardest hit areas of District Five and District Six to begin replacing damaged and missing signs. While most signals are operational, SCDOT and contract signal crews continue to make repairs on remaining damaged signals and flashers. SCDOT bridge inspectors are also working to assess support structures for damage, and other conditions such as scour. Closed bridges are re-opened to traffic only after bridge inspection teams have performed a thorough inspection.

Damage assessment teams are reviewing infrastructure damage and preparing estimates and quantities necessary to effect repairs using in-house and contractor forces.

The movable bridges on the Intracoastal Waterway in Beaufort, Charleston, and Horry Counties are available to open for marine traffic.

Due to ongoing flooding and areas that have not been assessed, motorists are urged to travel with extreme caution until waters recede and roads are cleared. Conditions are still hazardous with the possibility of trees, debris, and downed power lines blocking roads. Power outages still linger in the hardest hit areas.

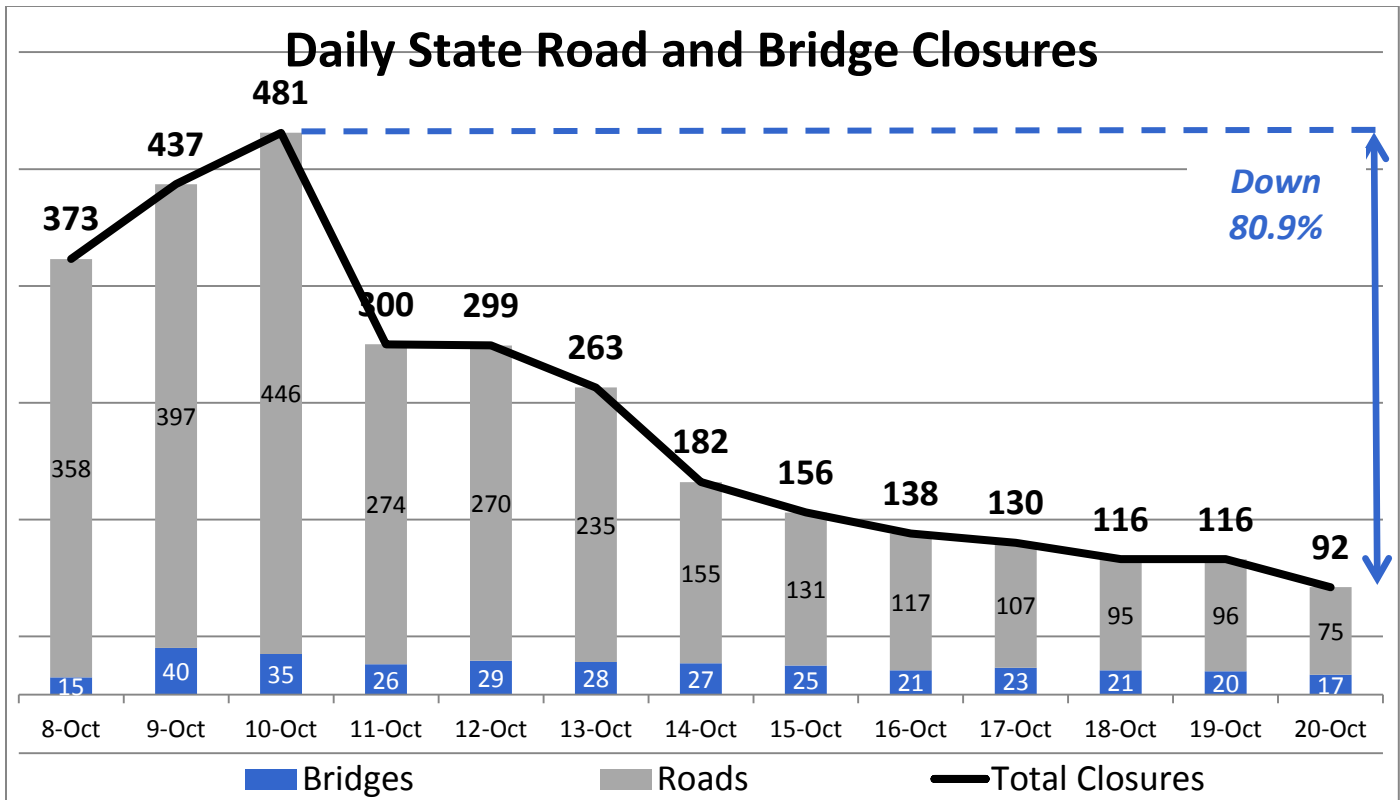

1255	Maintenance Employees Working in Response to Matthew

Other Modes of Transportation

Public Transit

All public transit systems are now running regular service, with Coast RTA (Myrtle Beach) modifying a single daily commuter route due to local conditions in Georgetown County.

Freight Rail status:

CSX (Class I)

All CSX routes in South Carolina are restored and operating normally.

R.J. Corman (Shortline - Marion and Horry Counties)

R. J. Corman is continuing repairs/clearing to address 30 washouts and 12 miles of flooded rail and resume operations. The railroad is moving in equipment on 10.19.16, and the estimated return to service remains four weeks.

Passenger Rail status:

All Amtrak routes in South Carolina impacted by Hurricane Matthew have resumed operations. The Palmetto, serving Dillon, Florence, Kingstree, North Charleston, and Yemassee, is not operating due to unrelated, previously-scheduled maintenance. The Silver Meteor service that also runs on this same route is operating normally and serving the same stations.

Services using the Norfolk Southern mainline with stations in Spartanburg, Greenville and Clemson are not impacted and are operating.

Airports

Normal operations.

Coast Guard (Ports)

Normal operations
